

ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT SYSTEM AUDIT OF PRINTING FACILITY

OCL Group was retained by a private client regarding purchase of a business. The international purchaser required each of its facilities have an effective environmental management system in place. The facility was audited for significant aspects; management of the aspects and identification of missing components and/or ineffective components.

Client: private company

